Gonzales Calls on Carranza to Resign

WASHINGTON, April 14.-Private advices received here today from Nuevo Laredo said that General Pablo Gonzales, formerly chief military leader under the present Mexican gov ernment, had rejoined his command and issued a proclamation calling on Carranza to resign. He said the supreme court should name a provisional president who would hold elections.

General Gonzales at the same time withdrew as a candidate for president Ygnacio Bonillas, ambassador to the United States, to follow his example, American athletes are looking for
